

Congress Interviews

- Description: Participants will prepare their 4-H Portfolio and submit it to the State 4-H Office by February 15th. Portfolios are a cumulative report of a 4-H member's experiences. The portfolios are then judged and the top individuals will be invited for an interview at State 4-H Contests. This is the only time interviews are offered.
- Entries: Each person may submit one portfolio to be judged
- State Award: Top individual will receive a scholarship to attend the national event
- National Trip: 4-H National Congress is held in Atlanta, Georgia

Special Information:

Portfolio forms are available at the USU County Extension Offices. Portfolio forms are also available on the webpage at www.utah4h.org/portfolio.

When assembling the 4-H Portfolio, follow the directions given on the back of the green divider pages. In addition, there are "Tips for Submitting Your 4-H Portfolio for State Competition" available at the USU County Extension Offices or online.
