Determined at the National Level (www.westernnationalroundup.org)

National Awards:

General Information:

Final placing's are based on a combination of the evaluation of presentation, modeling, and construction. The three highest in overall placing will receive awards. Contestants winning first place may not compete again. Contestants will only receive one award/year.

Judging:

- 50% – 1) Construction
- 50% – 2) Modeling with commentary and interview

Contest Rules:

- Each contestant must submit a full-length photo of themselves in their outfit no later than July 1. Include name and county.
- Contestant order will be determined by a random drawing. The schedule will be set up in half hour time blocks with a maximum of five (5) contestants per block. Contestants should be ready to model at the beginning of their assigned time block.
- Contestants will have up to five (5) minutes to model. This time limit includes an oral presentation as well as modeling the garment.
 - Participants will introduce themselves before modeling.
 - Time limit of up to 1½ minutes
 - Contestant can choose what he/she would like to tell the judges, but the following must be covered:
 - Name and county
 - Why did you choose this outfit?
 - How does it fit in your wardrobe?
 - Where do you plan to wear it?
 - If it has been embellished, how?
 - Contestants will follow their introduction with modeling.
 - Judges will have the opportunity to ask questions if they would like more information.
 - Music will be provided.

- The contestant's introduction will take the place of any narrations.
- Ties will be broken by the judges
- Judges will use the Utah State Fashion Revue Evaluation Form.

For state competition, a copy of the completed Contestant Info Sheet needs to be in the State 4-H office by July 1. Email this to kelsey.romney@usu.edu. It is no longer necessary to bring patterns or instruction sheets to the contest. You may bring them if you feel it would be helpful during your interview, but they are not required.

The Fashion/Display/Talent Show and Banquet will be Tuesday evening. Contestants will meet at 4:15pm for a full dress rehearsal on stage.
